REGULATION NO. II OF 1897.

(Passed on the 11th day of February 1897.)

A Regulation to provide for the prevention of the outbreak or spread of dangerous epidemic disease.

Preamble. Whereas it is expedient to provide for the prevention of the outbreak or spread of dangerous epidemic disease in Mysore; Her Highness the Maharani-Regent is pleased to enact as follows:—

1. (i) This Regulation may be called "The Epidemic Diseases Regulation, 1897;"

Title.

Extent. (ii) It extends to the whole of the Territories of Mysore; and

Commencement. (iii) It shall come into force at once.

2. (i) When at any time the Government of Mysore is satisfied that Mysore or any part thereof is visited by, or threatened with, an outbreak of any dangerous epidemic disease, the said Government, if it thinks that the ordinary provisions of the law for the time being in force are insufficient for the purpose, may take such measures and, by public notice, prescribe such temporary regulations to be observed by the public or by any person or class of persons, as it shall deem necessary to prevent the outbreak of such disease or the spread thereof, and may determine in what manner and by whom any expenses incurred (including compensation, if any) shall be defrayed.

(ii) The Government of Mysore may require or empower any person to take such measures as he shall deem necessary to prevent the outbreak of such disease or the spread thereof.

(iii) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, the Government of Mysore may take measures and prescribe regulations for the inspection of persons travelling by railway or otherwise, and the segregation, in hospital, temporary accommodation or otherwise, of persons suspected by the inspecting officer of being infected with any such disease.

3. Any person disobeying any regulation or order made under this Regulation shall be deemed to have committed an offence punishable under Section 188 of the Indian Penal Code.

4. No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything done, or in good faith intended to be done, under this Regulation.

K. SHESHADRI IYER,
Dewan of Mysore.
